opener: Bound for a sensational tour Down under Australia's Kex Boyd says she is "quite excited" about facing off against England in the Ashes, and hopes her new haircut will influence play on the field. The 18-year-old from Bundaberg, Queensland, spent her summer playing Twenty20 cricket for Australia's under-19s and is the only female to play in all four ICC Under-19 World Cups. "I think the way I played this last summer, hopefully it will have a big impact on the game," Boyd said. "I think it'll be quite exciting to play against them." Boyd, who has a tattoo of Harry Potter on her right forearm, has also had her hair trimmed short after playing in tournaments across Australia. The 18-year-old said: "I'm quite excited. It should be pretty cute." Australia open their tour with a three-day practice game against England in Adelaide beginning on Wednesday. The first Ashes Test starts on 8 November in the same city. Boyd said she felt "really confident" about her chances of making the starting lineup. "I don't song, What's the best way to keep from getting out of step? I just noticed that I've been wearing my low heel women's sandals a little higher than normal lately. While I know that a higher heel will help me keep in step with my other shoes, even though I feel better in them, I'm just not sure if it's necessary to wear them any higher than normal. Am I just trying to "cover up" because
